

Dr. Alexandra Haritini Iutis

Hospital Manager at UMFST "George Emil Palade" Hospital, Târgu Mureș

Dr. Alexandra Haritini Iutis is a medical specialist and the Manager of the UMFST "George Emil Palade" Hospital in Târgu Mureș.

After graduating from the University of Medicine, School of Dental Medicine in Iași, Romania, Dr. Iutis initially worked as a nurse and then ran her own general dentistry clinic for nearly 17 years.

In 2016, she completed the first training program organized by L'Institut du Face et Cou, part of the Faculté de Médecins de la Nice – Université Côte d'Azur, earning a university diploma in non-surgical facial aesthetic procedures.

In 2020, she became a healthcare services evaluator, specializing in patient safety and quality of care in medicine.

In 2021, she completed a training program organized by the National School of Public Health, Management, and Professional Development in Bucharest, becoming a specialist in healthcare services management.

Since early 2021, she has been part of the education, research, and quality management department within Romania's National Authority for Quality Management in Healthcare.