

Mr. Claudiu-Richard Târziu

Member of the European Parliament, Member of the Committee on Security and Defence

Claudiu-Richard Târziu is a Member of the European Parliament, representing the interests of Romanian citizens and actively contributing to the formulation of European policies in the field of security and defence.

As a member of the Committee on Security and Defence (SEDE), Mr. Târziu focuses on promoting cooperation in defence at the European level and developing a common security policy.

As a graduate of the Faculty of Law at Mihai Eminescu University in Iași and of the Faculty of Communication and Public Relations at SNSPA Bucharest, Claudiu-Richard Târziu has gained extensive experience in politics and diplomacy prior to his election to the European Parliament. He has held important positions in public administration, including serving as a Senator in the Romanian Parliament.

Within the Committee on Security and Defence, Mr. Târziu participates in debates and legislative initiatives addressing current security challenges, including cyber threats, terrorism, and crisis management.

He is also a strong advocate for strengthening European military capabilities and enhancing cooperation among EU member states in facing global security challenges.

Claudiu-Richard Târziu is also a writer and the President of the Mihai Eminescu Institute for Conservative Studies.