

Mr Radu Marcu

CO-CEO Connections Consult

Radu Marcu joined Connections Consult in November 2021, serving as their Software Chief Operating Officer. In this role, he has been instrumental in overseeing the offering, delivery, and post-implementation operations of the software development team, in addition to being a valued member of the Connections Group Management Board.

With over 15 years of experience in managing software development activities, Radu brings a wealth of expertise and his background includes successfully managing integrated projects for clients in Romania and international markets, developing complex products, and leading extensive software development and product teams.