

Mr. Victor Negrescu

Vice-president of the European Parliament

Victor Negrescu is the Vice President of the European Parliament. With a broad expertise in both European and national politics, Mr Negrescu was chosen as a Member of the European Parliament in 2019 and has actively promoted policy to strengthen social cohesion, economic development, and sustainability within the European Union. Previously, he served as Minister Delegate for European Affairs in the Romanian Government, where he coordinated the negotiation processes of European dossiers and played a significant role in promoting Romania's interests at the EU level.

Victor Negrescu graduated the University of Bucharest, where he studied Political Science and holds a Master's degree in European and International Affairs from Université Pierre Mendès-France – Grenoble as well as an MBA from the Bucharest University of Economic Studies (ASE) / CNAM Paris. Committed to social values and democracy, Mr. Negrescu advocates for constructive dialogue between EU member states and institutions, aiming to strengthen a united and fair Europe.

He is a lecturer at the National School of Political Science and Public Administration, and has previously taught at UC Louvain Saint-Louis in Brussels and at Dimitrie Cantemir University, School of Communication and Public Relations. He has also worked as a journalist for RFI Romania, and has experience as an entrepreneur and as president of the Association des Étudiants Francophones.